

CV | Wilhelm Schröder

Fund manager of the NESTOR Australia

Wilhelm Schröder has been accompanying the NESTOR Australia since its inception in May 2002. He has more than 30 years of experience in equities from Down Under.

Born in Lüneburg, he studied agricultural sciences in Göttingen and Munich. In 1986 he embarked on his career with various positions at the London brokerage house Jackson's Ltd. and Kleinwort's. Wilhelm Schröder joined Australia's largest investment bank – Macquarie Bank in 1989. More recently, Schröder was head of their representative office in Munich before setting up his own company, Schröder Equities GmbH, in 2005. Together with an Australian partner he provides advice to institutional investors about their investment decisions in Australia; he also advises Australian companies aiming to access the German-speaking capital market.
